

LACKAWANNA COUNTY.

CARBONDALE.

THE CITY'S BUSINESS.

Common council met last evening and approved a large batch of bills from the upper house. The only one objected to was that of the Leader for $25. It was claimed part of the amount was for advertising never done. The bill was referred. A resolution granting him to the city clerk for the preparation of the tax duplicate was adopted. The select council resolution requiring the fire chief to sanction all supplies for the fire companies was concurred in. The Mitchell regulation, with the exception of the telephone and papering, was approved. That engineer crown and ditch Gordon avenue was adopted. That windows of city building be equipped with the Bradshaw automatic window opener; that engineer make profile of Wayne street from Salem to Seventh avenue; that Patrick Brennan be allowed $35 for filling; that light in front of McGarry property on West Side be raised; referred. The tax levy ordinance passed first and second readings.

"WINE AND WOMEN."

Dr. Tracy's lecture on "Wine and Women," at the opera house last night, was listened to by a large audience. He spoke particularly on the relation of the drink cure to women. His programme for the remainder of the week is as follows: Tuesday night on the relation of toxicants toward ladies during their three periods, at sixteen years, between eighteen and twenty, and from twenty to death.

Wednesday night, "The Mississippi of Intemperance, or the River of Death." This lecture is the most interesting and to get ready for the public, and the pictures are a most wonderful thing to see. The entire evening will be devoted to pictures and talks on them. A silver offering will be taken up on that night, and the people who attend will recognize the enormous expense to which Dr. Tracy has had to go and should contribute generously.

Thursday night, "The Effects of Alcohol on the Human System." Friday's lecture will be on "Ten Nights in a Barroom." This lecture Dr. Tracy is most proficient in, and it will be well worth the people's time and efforts to hear him.

STRIKE AT BREWERY.

A dozen hod carriers who were employed on the brewery addition by Contractor Schroeder, refused to go to work yesterday morning. Their places were filled by labor from Scranton. They were getting $1.35 a day and desired $1.50. The contractor says they went on strike without consulting him, hence the summary ending of the trouble.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mattie Hughes Brown, of New York, has been spending several days with her parents in this city. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wetherby, of Wayne street, have returned from Daytona, Florida, where they spent the winter. Miss Florida Mills, who spent nine weeks in this city, has returned to Rhode Island. George Male will return to New York today. He will be accompanied by his sister. C. S. Alexander has accepted a clerkship in Leasley's store. Contractor Tiffany has commenced alterations on the house of J. J. Forbes, which will be converted into a large double tenement. Mr. Forbes and family have gone to New York to reside. Arthur Howell has resigned as manager of the Postal Telegraph company's interests in this city. Isabelle, the ten-year-old daughter of ex-Councilman P. G. McDonough, of White Bridge, while jumping rope on Saturday evening had her foot caught by the rope and was thrown heavily to the ground. As a result, the bone in her right arm was fractured.

"FORTUNE FAVORS THE BRAVE." It is also favorable to those who purify their blood in the spring by taking America's Greatest Spring Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. A clear head and a healthy body are given by its use. Constipation is cured by Hood's Pills, 25c.

OLYPHANT.

Fields & Hanson's Minstrel company will appear at the Father Mathew opera house Thursday night. This company is well-known here, and their appearance is sure to draw a crowded house. The Taxpayers' association will hold a meeting in the council rooms Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. A large number from here witnessed "The Heart of Erin," which was produced at Jessup last evening, under the direction of S. J. Evans, of this place. Be sure and attend the grand concert which will be given at the Father

Mathew opera house this evening, under the auspices of Rev. E. A. Hammond's Bible class of the Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harnden, of Carbondale, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Harnden over Sunday. Miss Mary Bradley, of Williamsport, is visiting Miss Grace Lynch. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Longacre, of West Scranton, visited the latter's home here on Sunday. J. A. Shultz was summoned to New York yesterday, owing to the serious illness of his sister there. Mrs. M. W. Cummings, Mrs. Ellen Murphy and Mrs. William McDonnell attended the funeral of Miss B. A. Carroll, at Scranton, yesterday. Druggist Bush, who has been ill at Stroudsburg for the past two weeks, returned yesterday much improved.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Interesting Services—Death of an Esteemed Resident. The following communication appeared in last evening's Leader, and will be of interest to many of our readers: "How the Methodist church at Jermyrn conducted services in the absence of their beloved pastor, Rev. J. B. Cook, who is attending the annual conference at Owego. This morning the 10 o'clock class meeting, led by Rev. F. R. Gill, was largely attended yesterday. This class is the great spiritual attraction of the church. Brother Gill is a good local preacher and has been leader of this class for more than twenty years. His strong forte is his fine singing ability. He is also a great lover of his Bible and the Christian Advocate. He is an up-to-date, progressive Christian.

Professor Arthur Fowler, with his Epworth League, had charge of the morning service. This meeting proved to be very helpful to all Christian workers. Thomas Evans, Thomas Warwick and C. L. Bell delivered practical addresses upon the topic, "What is Our Duty to Our God?" The choir under the leadership of Thomas Joplin rendered a number of the anthems which were greatly enjoyed.

The sacred concert given by the Sunday school at the evening service was the crowning effort of the day. The beautiful edifice was crowded to the doors. Our worthy organist, Alfred Walkey, never played sweeter. The choir was at its best and kindly repeated two beautiful Easter anthems, and then Prof. Elijah Stevens and his orchestra captured his audience and thrilled them with his fine music as he ever rendered to our church. The singing of the Sunday school, led by the orchestra and choir, was grand and inspiring. The recitations of Robert Hall, Nellie Evans, Florence Miller, Miffie Osborne and Emma Roberts, were of high order and deserved special praise. The superintendent of the Sunday school is justly proud of his young talented people. If more of these services were held in our church we would have fewer empty pews and a larger number of church attendants." Mr. Caroline Maynard, a well-known and highly esteemed resident of this borough, died at her home on Main street yesterday afternoon, after a severe sickness of bronchial trouble extending over a period of six weeks. She was of high order and in her seventy-eight years age, and with her husband and family came to this country in the early fifties. For the past thirty-five years she has been a resident of this borough. She is survived by five sons, Stephen, John, Henry and Frank, of this borough, and William, of Nanticoke, and two sisters, Mrs. William Jones, of Carbondale and Miss Sarah Jones. By her death her family loses a faithful and loving mother, the church an earnest and devout Christian, and the community one who to know was to esteem. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. Right Rev. Bishop Talbot will hold confirmation services in St. James Episcopal church tomorrow evening.

MOOSIC.

The new Spring colliery, which was built four years ago, began business yesterday. It is understood, at least for the present, that the company intends to operate this colliery in connection with Elmwood colliery of the Florence Coal company, at Smithville, working every other day until a force of men can be installed here. Mr. E. J. Knaap, of Greenwood, is dangerously ill. Little hopes are entertained for his recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Labar entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lawson and daughter, of Larksville, Luzerne county, yesterday. Mr. Henry Ives leaves for Aspen, Colorado, this evening, where he has accepted a position. Mr. James Dougherty, of this place, had his initial trial with the Scranton base ball team Saturday. An interesting game of base ball was played on the home grounds Saturday, between the Moosic Poplars and Ponders, of Aspen. The score was 10-9 in favor of the Poplars. A number of young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Funeral of Mrs. William Herbert. Coroner Roberts holds an Inquest. Trolley Party—Personal and Other Items. The funeral of the late Mrs. William Herbert occurred from the family residence in Barboursville, Old Forge, yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The esteem and respect in which she was held was well exemplified by the large gathering which thronged the late home of the deceased. Services were held in the family residence and were eloquent and impressive. Rev. J. J. Jenkins, pastor of the Nebo Congregational church, officiated. At the close of the services, the funeral procession moved to the Washburn street cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. The pall bearers were Messrs. Richard Roberts, David Hughes, Evan Davies, Wallace Homestead, Morgan Howells and Mr. Ayers. Coroner J. J. Roberts was in town yesterday and held an inquest over the remains of Patrick Vasily, who died quite suddenly at his boarding house on Oak street on Sunday. Coroner Roberts was assisted in the inquest by Health Officer Dr. J. W. Houser. Mrs. Caroline Maynard, a well-known and highly esteemed resident of this borough, died at her home on Main street yesterday afternoon, after a severe sickness of bronchial trouble extending over a period of six weeks. APPOINTMENTS MADE BY BISHOP FOSS tion, the destruction of the Spanish fleet, one of our great commanders called his men together on deck and while the guns were still smoking, said: "Let us first of all give thanks to Almighty God for this wonderful victory." So amid the excitement of the closing moments of this memorable conference session, let us stop long enough to devoutly render praise to the Great God of the church, our God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the God of all grace and comfort, for the victories of the past and ere the smoke of the conflict vanishes away, consecrate ourselves to the more arduous duties which await us. The review of our work at the conference calls for praise to the Giver of all, especially for the large ingathering of souls to Christ in all our borders—more than seven thousand have been converted. To some this conference has brought great honors and responsibilities, in that they have been called to the more arduous duties which await us. The review of our work at the conference calls for praise to the Giver of all, especially for the large ingathering of souls to Christ in all our borders—more than seven thousand have been converted.

Resolved, That we are profoundly grateful and thankful to the Providence of God that our beloved bishop, Cyrus D. Foss, has for the second time presided over the conference; and that we have the warmest appreciation of his mantle and uniform courtesy, his wise counsel, his admirable address and helpful sermon that we pray that he may be long spared to minister to the church of God in his high and holy calling. Second, That we greatly appreciate the cordial welcome that has been extended to us in this beautiful city. It has afforded inexpressible delight to be here and to share the hospitality of their quiet and restful homes. To all who have opened their doors, or who have in any way contributed to our entertainment, we extend the devotion of our hearts to their grateful acknowledgment. We trust that we have so departed ourselves among you that a sweet and blessed influence will be left behind us.

THANKS EXTENDED.
